And then meet the masters of the ecolodge... or should we say masters of the kitchen, as cooking is what is closest to their hearts! Come enjoy some of the finest French cuisine in a place you might not have expected!

Night at the ecolodge or in a yurt.

Day 2 : « Le collet de la Cime» (the Collet Peak)

Total Climb : 300 meters. Total downhill : 300 meters.

Distance : 6km. Time : 2hrs 30.

The comfortable yurts tend to make travelers want to sleep in, so on day 6, we offer a lovely, relaxing half-day hike, far from everything. The top of the Collet peak offers a 360 degree vista of all the peaks of the valley. A shaded picnic amongst the larch trees and a pit-stop along a mountain stream, which allows for some fun splashing around, usually motivates slower groups to keep moving.

This day renting a donkey is an option, included in the price of the stay.

Night at the ecolodge or in a yurt.

Day 3 : Free day

Our guides will help you choose your adventure according to the season and the weather. For those who enjoy rock climbing and canyoning, this is an ideal starting point, right above the famous Clue d'Amen (not including on the price of the tour). Please note you will need to drive to the starting point. Activities not included in the price of the stay and payable directly at your guide.

For hikers, exceptionally clear signage gives you the opportunity to explore the upper valley. This day renting a donkey is an option, not included in the price of the stay and payable directly on site : €70.

You can also enjoy a day off.

Day 5 : Hiking and swimming in the Cante natural swimming pools

Accumulated Ascent : 300 m - Accumulated Descent : 300 m

Distance : 5 km - Continuous walking time : 2 hrs 30

This hike follows an ancestral path linking the villages together. It will imbue you with the wild charm of our mountains silhouetted at more than 2500 m against the blue sky, punctuated with small hamlets perched on dry stone walls, shady forests and delightful stops in refreshing torrents.

Night at the ecolodge or in a yurt.

Day 6 :

Free day : Our guides will help you choose your adventure according to the season and the weather or you can enjoy a day off.

Or St Honorat :

Accumulated Ascent : 1200 m - Accumulated Descent : 1200 m

Distance : 12 km - Continuous walking time : 6 hrs 30

Great high-altitude hike to be reserved for good walkers and families wishing to experience an Alpine summit... However, it is possible to stop on the ridges where a grandiose panorama rewards a sustained climb. St Honorat is the characteristic peak of the valley, the first true summit in the South. Its ascent is a bit of a myth for the inhabitants of the valley because children do it with their parents from the age of 7. It's a way of reaching the age of reason when you have completed St Honorat.

Night at the ecolodge or in a yurt.

Day 7 : The Allos Lake or Entrevaux

Total Climb : 410 meters.Total downhill : 970 meters.

Distance : 10 km. Time : 4 hrs.

Morning departure by car (1hr drive) to go exploring the lakeside and drive up the valley. Your weeks trek rounds off in a climax with an enchanted tour around the glacial lakes of Allos, Garrets and la petite Cayolle. You will lose yourself on this journey through nature, where the blue sky is reflected in the clear waters of the lakes and the endemic flora strewn with alpine pastures.

For those arriving by train or bus in Villeplane there is no possibility of going around the lakes (too far from Villeplane). We offer instead a visit to the very beautiful fortified village of Entrevaux and its citadel.

End of the stay late afternoon.

Attention : The program can be modified according to the vagaries of the weather, in particular snow conditions at altitude.
